Tucked away in a canyon in the Mule Mountains just outside of Bisbee, Arizona this fantastic property offers a unique cave house in a wonderful, natural setting. At 5300' elevation the cave house, guest house, and various outbuildings make an ideal retreat.

A natural creek flows through the property and has lovely swimming pools with rock patios. The area attracts birders from around the world and is perfect for wildlife viewing. Chulo, another word for coatimundi are often viewed on the property. The land, approximately 37 acres, is home to over 79 species of birds, 113 species of butterflies, ringtail cats, foxes, skunks, deer, squirrels, lizards, frogs, and snakes just to name a few.

Qualified, serious buyers only please. Listing agent Jean Noreen to accompany all showings. See contact information below.
